Wm. Pepper & Son are selling fine candies, note, raisin &c. cheaper than any place in the city. Fresh stock just received. Chocolates, mixed and sick candy at 10 cents per pound. Prices of groceries greatly reduced. n1833

The natural gas fever has again broken out at London, Ohio. A company has been organized and will begin the work at once of sinking a well to the depth of twenty-five hundred or three thousand feet. The well was sunk to the depth of two thousand feet last spring, without meeting with any success.

In referring to the manner in which the Lexington banks allowed themselves to be taken in by a couple of "greemies" last week, the Courier-Journal says: "When old citizens of Lexington present drafts or checks at the banks, they are obliged to call in all their neighbors to identify them, but when a perfect stranger comes in, he can draw his hundreds without a question being asked."

Sensible Advice on Cookery.

A wide-awake paper says, "A family fed on fried breakfast, with the juice all solidified and the steak full of grease, and sodden potatoes and heavy bread, suffers not only in stomach but in nerve and brain." Yes, and the family will have dyspepsia, debility and bad blood, give them Brown's Iron Bitters and drive those diseases out. Mr. J. Hoehn, Delphos, Ohio, writes, "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for impurity of blood, and a greatly benefited."

Sard's Supper.

The ladies of the Sardia M. E. Church are doing heroic work to keep up the reputation so justly merited by the supper they gave last year. The members of all the churches are showing a good spirit by their willingness to give and help. The indications are the "Arcade" will have a larger crowd than ever before. The building will be handsomely decorated and illuminated. The supply of oysters, ice-cream, cake and other eatables will be abundant. Music by the Sardia band. The ladies cordially invite the citizens in and around Marysville, Mayfield, Mt. Vernon and Sardinia to come and aid them in the good work next Friday and Saturday evenings. Admission, adults 10 cents; children 5 cents.

Attempted Assassination.

News has been received at Lexington of the attempted assassination of Colonel Hugh W. Rogers, of that place, by the United States Marshal under Captain Gross. The attempt was made last Sunday night at Mt. Pleasant, the county seat of Harlan County, and resulted in the shooting of Rogers in the back near the spine, the ball penetrating the abdomen. His wounds are considered very serious. At the time of the shooting Rogers was in his room at the hotel, and was making preparations for another raid on the moonshiners that country. Two of his informants, who had been in consultation with him, had just left the room, when some one fired through a window with the result as above stated. Search was immediately made for the cowardly assassin, but without any success.

Rogers was appointed a deputy under Marshal Gross last summer, and has made one of the best officers in the service. His district embraces the mountain counties of Eastern Kentucky and is considered a dangerous one. About two months ago he made a raid on the moonshiners of Knox and Harlan Counties and arrested twenty-nine persons, who were taken to Louisville. The majority of these persons were convicted and are now serving out their imprisonment. The friends of some of the convicted moonshiners are no doubt the cowardly assassins who attempted to take Rogers' life.

"Peck's Bad Boy"

Heege's Comedy Company in "Peck's Bad Boy," at the opera house to-night. The same company played at Paris last week, and in alluding to it, the Bourbon News says:

A large house greeted Heege's Comedy Company at "Peck's Bad Boy," at an early hour on Sunday evening, and evinced its thorough appreciation by means of laughter and shouts of applause. The "Bad Boy" has certainly won an immense hit here, and it is made by the company. The play is fully deserved. Mr. Heege's version of the "Bad Boy" is a dramatic comedy, with many points, repeats with ludicrous situations, and a variety of variety of any sort. The company selected for the production of this play-making comedy is in first class one. There is not a "dick" in the cast. Mr. Heege, Mr. W. W. Weber, and Mr. J. H. H. are all excellent comedians, while the ladies of the company, Lillian Mandeville, Miss May, Bessie and Adelaide Stanton are above criticism. G. J. Heege does a splendid job of conducting as the old dramatist, "Luther Stubb."

The Star Shone Bright on an Algiers Trio

Some days ago three very worthy citizens of Algiers, La. Augustus Kevin, a joiner on the ship, Louis H. H. H., foreman of the Vallette dry dock, and Anthony O. Guillot, machinist at Patterson and Oliver streets, all industrious and respectable mechanics of the highest attainments, bought a one-dollar ticket in the October drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery. Yesterday when the drawing of the lottery was announced it was found that the one-dollar had won one-fifth of the capital price of $75,000. Not was their equanimity disturbed by their winning $5,000 each.—(New Orleans, Daily States, October 14th.)

PERSONAL.

Mr. M. J. Brown, a prominent lawyer of Newport, Ky., was in the city yesterday on legal business.

Mr. T. K. Kneer has retired from the grocery business. He sold his stock to Mr. James Dickson.

Mrs. Anna Coburn, mother of Mrs. John H. H. H., has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Illinois.

Mr. Thomas W. Wheatly was in town Tuesday. It is intimated that he has applied for a position in the revenue service and if such be the case we are sure General Robinson could not find a more worthy and deserving Democrat.

Mr. Wheatley's appointment to some good position would meet with hearty approval in this city and county.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Miss Anna Lawrence has returned from her extended trip to the East.

Three more additions to the Christian Church last Sunday—sent to date.

Mrs. William Cole, who has been poorly for some time, is now lying quite low.

The congregation of the Christian Church last Sunday numbered about one thousand.

We noticed a strange man, and so long as he was in the city, we will keep a close watch on him.

Had a stranger passed along Main street this place last Saturday night, he would have thought he was in the city of Washington.

There were five persons immersed last Monday afternoon, making seven in all.

The meeting at the Christian Church in this place last night was very large and successful. The ladies were very attentive.

DRIFTING.

BY MISS P. J. BEATTIE.
 We are drifting, now, drifting, now,
 Forward that way of unseen things;
 Or to the right, or to the left,
 Through the hour-glass of time.
 Drifting our life's restless ocean,
 Swiftly borne upon its tide,
 Our frail bark is kept in motion,
 By its own power to go on.
 Drifting onward, ever drifting,
 On star-bow's or on roll;
 Yet, with light from heaven's light,
 All may reach that sunlit goal.
 Still, earth's way is vast attractions
 With its own power to go on.
 O'er our lives and o'er our actions,
 Though we're drifting hour by hour.
 The stern voice of earthly pleasure
 Allures us, ever to drift;
 'Twere wisdom then to seek for treasure
 That is free of all alloy.

We're but weak and erring mortals,
 Yet, with faith's strong arms applied,
 When we drift upon life's dark portals,
 The weary souls will open wide.
 Aberdeen, Ohio, Nov. 16, 1885.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY.

Proclamation by the Governor for a Day of Thanksgiving and Praise.

"Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endureth forever."
